On May 10, 2012, at approximately 11:15 a.m., plaintiff was seated in the passenger seat of his sister's vehicle, which was being driven by Madeline Ortiz. The vehicle was proceeding Northbound in the express lane on the Grand Concourse, when another vehicle travelling Southbound on the Grand Concourse made an illegal U-turn to travel Northbound and sideswipped the vehicle in which plaintiff was a passenger, near the Northeast corner of 167th Street and the Grand Concourse.

Subsequent to the vehicle being sideswipped, Madeline Ortiz stopped the vehicle and put on the hazard lights. Both plaintiff and Madeline Ortiz, then, exited the vehicle and plaintiff told Madeline Ortiz to get onto the small divider between local and expresstraftic, while plaintiff went to the driver's side to assess the damage to the driver's side of the vehicle.

Police Officer Robert Foley and another unknown police officer immediately appeared at the scene. The unknown police officer went to the vehicle that had sideswipped the vehicle in which plaintiff was a passenger, which was occupied by what appeared to be two caucasian women, while police officer Foley came to the vehicle plaintiff was a passenger of. Plaintiff and Madeline Ortiz explained to police officer Foley, that the other vehicle had sideswipped them while making an illegal U-turn, which had been witnessed by an African-American couple, who had been driving Northbound behind the vehicle plaintiff was a passenger of, and had stopped and told police officer Foley exactly what plaintiff and Madeline Ortiz had told him; yet, the other vehicle was allowed to leave the scene, without providing insurance or vehicle registration information.

After the other vehicle was allowed to leave the scene, Madeline Ortiz informed police officer Foley, that she was the driver of the sideswipped vehicle, which plaintiff had informed him of, also, but police officer Foley ignored them and asked plaintiff to turn around, when plaintiff complied, police officer Foley proceeded to pat frisk him, allegedly for contraband, and finding no contraband on plaintiff's person, police officer Foley requested consent to search the vehicle, which Madeline Ortiz and plaintiff refused to give.

Subsequently, Madeline Ortiz was allowed to leave and plaintiff was taken into custody, placed in handcuffs, and placed in the backseat of a police vehicle and transported to the 44th Police Precinct, while the vehicle was driven to the police precinct by an unknown police officer. Plaintiff was not advised of any reason why he was being taken into custody.

Thereafter, plaintiff was transported to Queens County, on or May 10, 2012, without having been arraigned upon any charges in Bronx County, and no warrant of arrest was outstanding against plaintiff in Queens County. Upon being transported to Queens County, plaintiff was arrested and charged with Burglary in the Second Degree (Queens County Docket Number 2012QN026102 & 6103). Plaintiff learned in Queens County, that police officer Foley had searched the vehicle plaintiff had been a passenger of during the accident at 167th Street and the Grand Concourse and allegedly discovered: 6 Nike shoes; 1 red laundry bag; 1 video game hardware; 1 black sony model playstation 3; 1 computer accessories usb stick; video game accessories white make sony playstation; and a playstation controller.

At approximately 4:00 p.m., on May 10, 2012, Police Officer Meghan Kinsella, Shield Number 25555, of the 108th Police Precinct was allegedly shown a still photo from a surveillance video of an individual wearing a dark Yankee hat, with a black hooded sweatshirt with skull and cross bones in white, and it clicked in her head, that she knew who the person was. She was familiar with him from dealing with him in the past in the precinct, though, plaintiff had only been at the 108th precinct once in his life, on February 4, 2010 for a few hours before being transported to central booking. The arresting officer's I.D. Number on that arrest was: 927334. That arrest occurred at approximately 3:31 p.m. on February 4, 2010.

Following several adjournments in Queens County Criminal Court a plea offer of 12 to life was placed on the record during proceedings of November 7, 2012, in plaintiff's absence. Plaintiff requested the assignment of new counsel on November 14, 2012, and the Court granted the request, relieving Eugene Sarchiapone of The Legal Aid Society and assigning Michael Siff, pursuant to §18-b.

That the original arrest charges in Bronx County, on May 10, 2012 were allegedly: Criminal Possession of a Weapon in the Third Degree, Reckless Endangerment in the Second Degree, Criminal

Possession of a Controlled Substance in the Seventh Degree, Criminal Possession of Stolen Property in the Fifth Degree, and Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle in the Third Degree. Plaintiff was returned to Bronx County pursuant to a warrant and was arraigned on October 2, 2012 upon the charges of Reckless Endangerment second-degree, Criminal Possession of a Controlled Substance, seventh-degree, Reckless Driving, Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle second-degree, and General Violation of Vehicle and Traffic Law(Kings County Criminal Court Docket Number 2012BX051311).

The case was sent to the Bronx County Supreme Court, before being returned to the Lower Court on June 18, 2013, plaintiff was not arraigned on the Criminal Possession of a Weapon, Criminal Possession of Stolen Property, or Aggravated Unlicensed Operation of a Motor Vehicle in the third-degree, and the other charges upon which plaintiff had been arraigned, pursuant to Bronx County Docket Number 2012BX051311 were dismissed, pursuant to C.P.L. §160.50, on June 18, 2013 and sealed.

Prior to the case being returned to the Lower Court, in Bronx County, plaintiff had been scheduled for a Mapp hearing in Bronx County Supreme Court, for June 18, 2013; yet, Queens County scheduled plaintiff for a court appearance in Queens County on the same date, as plaintiff was scheduled for the Mapp hearing in Bronx County Supreme Court, and, then, on June 18, 2013, plaintiff was being sentenced in Queens County Supreme Court, thus, plaintiff never was permitted to contest the legality of his seizure and search in Bronx County, regarding evidence used in Queens County against plaintiff in criminal proceedings.

Prior to plaintiff's sentencing in Queens County on June 18, 2013, the Court inquired, on May 9, 2013, about whether C.P.L. §710.30-1(b) Notice had been given because the Court didn't see it in the Court's file, to which defense counsel, Mr. Siff, and ADA Gillespie indicated 710.30 Notice of a confirmatory identification by a police officer had been served. ADA Gillespie went on to inform the Court, that she'd received a message, that plaintiff had pled guilty, and took one and a half to three on the Bronx case, on a charge of reckless endangerment. He had not been sentenced, just pled guilty. Asked by the Court whether the Bronx Judge had made any promise of concurrent time, defense counsel Siff stated, that was his understanding in speaking with the Bronx. Asked by the Court whether the Bronx Judge would have to wait until the Queens case was done, defense counsel Siff stated: "That's what they envisioned."

As already iterated herein, the charges in the Bronx case were dismissed, on the same day, as plaintiff was sentenced in Queens County; June 18, 2013, and there never was any plea of guilty by plaintiff to any charge in Bronx County in that case, nor had there been any plea offers in the case conveyed to plaintiff.

Plaintiff alleges, that Police Officer Robert Foley's unreasonable search and seizure, and failure to cause plaintiff to be brought before the Court without unnecessary delay, as well as his fabrication the alleged evidence violated plaintiff's state and federal constitutional rights under the 4th and 14th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution; Article I, §§6, 11 and 12 of the New York Constitution; §8 of the McKinney's Civil Rights Law; and C.P.L. §140.20(1).

Plaintiff alleges, that Police Officer Meghan Kinsella's false and fabricated testimony before the Grand Jury violated plaintiff's state and federal constitutional rights; namely, the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution and Article I, §6 of the New York Constitution, as well as §8 of McKinney's Civil Rights Law and 42 U.S.C. §§1983 and 1985.

Plaintiff alleges, that assistant district attorney Marissa Gillespie's knowing use of false testimony and false representations to the Court violated plaintiff's state and federal constitutional rights; namely, the 14th Amendment to the U.S. Constitution, Article I, §6 of the New York Constitution, as well as 42 U.S.C. §§1983 and 1985.

Plaintiff, further alleges, that defense counsel Michael Siff's utter failure to investigate the facts and law of the case and misrepresentation of the facts to the Court violated plaintiff's constitutional rights under the 6th and 14th Amendments to the U.S. Constitution, as well as 42 U.S.C. §§1983 and 1985.

Plaintiff alleges, that both Defendant William Bratton and Defendant Richard A. Brown violated plaintiff's constitutional and civil rights by failing to properly and adequately train and supervise their subordinates.

Attention: Staff

Hello, my name is Herman Olaizola and I am writing to you today because I would like to file a complaint against Police Officer Robert Foley [badge # 934873] of the 44th Precinct. This is what happened on May 10, 2012. Madeline Ortiz gave me a ride in my sister's car [Diana Olaizola] from 161st street Bronx, New York. While driving on 167th Street on the Grand Concourse we were side swiped by another vehicle that had two people [two white women] on the express uptown lane of the Grand Concourse.

Both cars came to a halt on about 168th street Grand Concourse with the car that swiped us in front. Madeline Ortiz and I stepped out the car. I asked Ms. Ortiz to get on the small sidewalk [divider between local and express lanes] as I went to assess the damage on the driver's side. Being that it was my sister's car.

Police Officer Robert Foley [badge # 934873] and his partner arrived, [both White men]. I explained to him what happened [that we were side swiped by the other car] a minor accident]. His partner went to speak to the occupant in the other car, [two white women] and said they could leave I could see that they were both shocked to her that they could go without giving up a license or identification, however they drove off.

P. O. Robert Foley asked me if he could search the car. He did not ask them the [two White women] if he could search their car but instead he wanted to search the car me and Madeline was in [two Puerto Ricans] I told him no. It was just an accident.

When I told him no he became upset and asked me again and I said no again. As I stated above I witness his partner let the people the [two White women] go without taking down any information [they caused the minor accident] after a brief questioning. P. O. Foley; however, he decided to hold me and I found that odd.

Even after an elderly couple [both African-American] told them, the exact thing I told them but he disregarded what they said. Ms. Madeline Ortiz also gave a testimony of the accounts of what happened and told Officer Foley, that she was the driver. He could have asked the passengers in the other car but he let them go.

Officer Foley and his partner did not acknowledge her whatsoever and told me to turn around. I was under arrest for a weapon. [previous conviction] P. O. Foley made trumped up charges in order to detain me. On June 18, 2013 all his charges were dismissed & sealed by Hon. Judge Mogulescu, W., [Docket number: 2012BX051311] 11 months later and I wasn't even arraigned of the weapons possession his initial charge.

He also falsified paper work and searched my sisters car illegally. I was arrested on May 10, 2012 and he changed his story when he wrote another incident report on 8/20/12 with different accounts of his arrest. He is the major reason why I am still incarcerated today.

P. O. Foley was at a Suppression Hearing in Queens ready to testify against me with the lies he put forth on May 10, 2012, to arrest me illegally.

Anyone familiar with driving up or down the Grand Concourse Blvd. knows you can not jump the sidewalk on the express lanes because it has the safety fence, also where is this so call pedestrian that almost go hit? And any damage on the car is on the drivers side.

I believe that I was targeted by P. O. Foley because I am a [Puerto Rican man], this was an act from a racist, [White man] this also discrimination, Police Officer falsely arrested me and I would like this Police Officer investigated for this discriminatory act. This act was a disgrace to the New York Police Department, to Madeline Ortiz and myself. Officers Like P. O. Foley is the main reason why people of color [African-American and American-Latinos] in this country do not trust Police Officers. I could only imagine if I and Ms. Ortiz was in a deserted area god knows what he would have tried to do to us, what he did makes me more fearful to even talk to a Police Officer.

Police officer Foley illegal arrest stole years of my life away from me and my family. To have something like this happen in this day and time is horrific. My constitutional rights were violated and I want justice. I want to thank all of you at the Civilian Complaint Review Board for any assistance that you can provide to me in this very tragic event. If you need any additional information from me please contact at the above address.

Sincerely Yours,

Herman Olaizola, #13-A-3418
